

AIKWOOD TOWER

Congratulations on your forthcoming wedding and thank you for considering Aikwood Tower as your special venue.

We believe that the place where you choose to celebrate your love for one another will always have a very special place in your heart and so at Aikwood Tower we work incredibly hard to ensure your day lives up to every expectation.

Totally private and almost 500 years old, Aikwood Tower, nestled in the heart of the Scottish Borders, is steeped in history and romance. It is a perfect marriage of ancient and modern – offering a unique Scottish castle experience, stunning country woodland surroundings with five-star luxury interiors and contemporary, boutique accommodation.

Situated just over an hour's drive from the north of England or south of Edinburgh, Aikwood Tower is easily accessible by car, train and air.

Whether you're planning a religious, humanist or civil ceremony, or simply a marriage celebration, our lovingly restored Border peel tower provides the perfect backdrop to a day that you and your guests will remember forever. Its magical charms captivate everyone who visits. 🍷

Available for exclusive hire Aikwood Tower has accommodation for eleven people and is ideal for weddings with up to eighty guests.

Wedding bookings are taken for a minimum of three nights over the weekend or two nights during the week. This allows you to spend time with family and friends before and after the main wedding event – a relaxed dinner as final preparations are made, or an after-party the following day perhaps!

We have a choice of entertaining spaces that you are able to use as you wish depending on guest numbers and your wedding plans.

The Laich Hall situated within the main Aikwood Tower building is perfect for a ceremony; have your nuptials presided over by a historic marriage stone woven into the wall that celebrates the marriage of Robert Scott of Aikwood and Elspeth Murray of Elibank in 1602.

For your wedding breakfast and dancing, our converted cart shed provides an impressive rustic space for you to celebrate your marriage in style.

The beautiful walled garden and orchard create a wonderful outdoor setting for drinks, photographs, games and socialising.

Many couples also choose to have their ceremony outside on the lawn or terrace – Scottish weather permitting!

Whilst accommodation at Aikwood Tower is limited, there are a number of quality hotels, B&Bs and self-catering lodges nearby for all your other guests. 🏠

We understand that every couple wants their day to be special and unique to them so no two weddings are the same at Aikwood Tower.

Central to our wedding planning is close collaboration with every couple to bring their ideas to life, creating the style and atmosphere that's just perfect for them. An experienced wedding team is on hand to provide specialist and creative advice on all aspects of your wedding day – from budget advice to venue styling, flowers to photographers, drinks to music.
